

CONFIRMATION 6-WEEK ELECTIVES

1. Expressing Your Faith in Worship – How to use your gifts and skills, or to trust God to use whatever He’s given you, to make worship a meaningful, life-changing experience for all. How can your own interests in music, drama, the arts, technology, or anything else be used to enhance the worship experience.
2. How Faith Can Influence My Participation In Athletics. Listen to athletes share how their faith has influenced their lives and their participation in a variety of sports - then ask them your questions about faith and life and sports. Hear from a former pitcher for the St. Paul Saints, a College leader for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, current and former FHS students, and more.
3. Sex, Drugs and Rock n’ Roll- Bring in your favorite music to share with the group. We will discuss the songs, the messages they are sending, and how they might influence us and relate to our lives.
4. Guys like Girls Who... Read and discuss this book by Chad Eastham and discover what guys really like in a girl and how to get the best out of yourself and your relationships with others. Come willing to share some of your own ideas and observations as well. This group is for GIRLS ONLY.
5. Finding God even in our doubts, hurts, and troubles. Come willing to share your questions and the questions of others who struggle to understand God. How can He be real, how and why He allows some things to occur, how to believe even as more questions and doubts are thrown at you, and any other questions you might have.
